Minutes of the 1992 Deep Creek Distribution meeting held February 6, 1992, were read by Bob Leake. Minutes of a second special meeting held March 2, 1992, were not available, but Lee Sim was able to state the important points of that meeting which was called to review and determine voting procedures for both Mosby and Deep Creek Water Users. Charman Justice made a motion to accept the minutes as read and Dave Murray seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Lee Sim presented the 1992 Financial Report. It was determined that an error had been made in the delinquent water assessments for both Marvin Huber and Martin Huber. This error was reviewed and corrected by Charman Justice. A motion to accept the financial statement as read and corrected was made by Dave Murray and seconded by Lance Luck. Motion carried.

Charman Justice presented her Water Commissioner's report for Deep Creek Distribution System for 1992. Charman reviewed the water year in general and described the problems she encountered during the year. She emphasized the urgent need for water users to make the needed repairs to headgates, weirs and ditches and to also see that beaver dams are removed. Charman expressed her thanks and appreciation to all those who have been so helpful to her during the past year. A motion was made by Robert Justice to accept the Commissioner's Report as read. Motion was seconded by John Justice and motion carried.

Lee Sim conducted the preparation of a budget for 1993 to include salaries, assessments and necessary expenses. A discussion followed on the cost per mile charged for the use of the Commissioner's truck on water user business. Charman Justice stated that the current rate is approximately $0.38/mile. Lee Sim stated that the current rate of the State is $0.40/mile, and asked if the Commissioner's rate of $0.38/mile shouldn't be increased. Charman Justice suggested that they should stay with $0.38/mile for the coming year and that a good set of records be kept so that the subject could be reviewed again next year. Lance Luck made a motion to keep the budget for 1993 the same as the 1992 budget. Motion was seconded by John Justice and motion carried.

The election of a water commissioner for 1993 was the next item of business. Charman Justice was nominated and unanimously approved by those in attendance.

Under other business, the current directors, Wayne Justice, Martin Huber and Ray Murray were nominated again, by acclamation, to serve for the year 1993. Motion for acceptance was made by Aaron Simmons and seconded by Lance Luck. Motion passed.

A final item of business was brought before the meeting when Dorothy Luck inquired of Bob Leake what the current status was of the controversy that has developed with Mosby Irrigation Company and Blanchett Reservoir. A lengthy discussion followed during which several opinions and ideas were voiced by the interested parties. The discussions concluded when it was suggested by Dave Murray that any final determination in the matter should be left to the Court. Lance Luck stated that Joe Hacking, Ashley Creek Water Commissioner had changed the locks at the Blanchett headgate and felt that no locks on Blanchett should ever be changed without first notifying Mosby Irrigation.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 a.m.
